President Clark's Address.

This afternoon President Clark defivered his annual address. He spoke in part as follows:

"Active operations for the construction of dams and canals and other improvements are now going on in Arizona, Nevada and Idaho. For other projects in California, Colorado, Wyoming and Montana available sites have been selected and adopted, estimates are being made and contracts will be let in the near future. In all of these cases sums have been set easide ranging from two and one quarter million dollars to carry on the work when the contract recompleted.

.The correspondent details how the various Japanese attacks were checked by the big moats and the terriole Russian fire, which rapidly depleted their ranks, notwithstanding a clever covering fire of Japanese artillery, and says:

"It was most remarkable, even incredible, but fully substantiating surmises of their ability to withstand the fire of the heaviest Japanese ordnance, how the Russians, despite the previous bombardment, replied from their fortress guns, although over 1,800,500-pound shells had been fired that day, not counting thousands of smaller projectiles. It is estimated that the day's bombardment cost the Japanese $200,000, representing nearly 20 per cent of the total cost since the opening days of the siege in August. Befort half an hour had elapsed, and after losing 600 ment, the Japanese abandoned the attack against the South Kekwan fort.

PRESIDENT A STAND-PATTER

Washington, Nov. 15.—No decision yet has been reached by the president and other Republican leaders regarding possible action of congress on the subject of tariff. It can be said authoritatively that no, decision will be reached as to such action either at a regular or at an extraordinary session of the Fifty-ninth congress until the subject has been considered thoroughly by the president and his cabinet and his political friends in congress. The president is not bound by any preconceived views on the subject, and is open to conviction as to the most desirable course to pursue. He is not inclined to favor an extraordinary session either for the purpose of taking up the tariff or any other subject; but it is said to be too early yet even to indicate the determination which eventually will

Baron Von Zedlitz, who was the leading spirit of the opposition to the canal bills in 1899 and 1991, is now trying to persuade the conservatives to support the present measure in order to close the breach between them and the emperor caused by the rejection of those bills.
